Turnip&Duck

Position: Background Artist/Layout Artist

October 29th 2018 to April 26th 2019

My role initially involved working closely with the creative director on designing elements of the show such as GFX overlays and concept layouts for the Background team in the production company. My role after that was to work up the layouts and backgrounds for the entire intro segment of the show working with notes from the lead Background artist in the production company. I also worked closely with the compositor on how to make the backgrounds easy to navigate, edit and reusable in terms of assets.
